

Welcome to Richard Haney

Executive Director of Frontier Missions

Richard Haney brings a blend of pastoral and missions experience to Frontier Fellowship. He came on staff in 2014 after serving as a missions pastor, new church development pastor and interim pastor for over 35 years. He has a Master of Divinity degree from Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary in Boston and a PhD degree from the Oxford Centre for Mission Studies and Middlesex University (London). He also currently serves as adjunct faculty at Gordon-Conwell and in other theological education capacities.

His role as Executive Director keeps him traveling often, meeting with church and frontier mission leaders and mobilizing partnerships and projects. He has led short term trips to 14 countries and spent time in Central and South America, the Caribbean, Africa, Eastern Europe, Central Asia, the Middle East and Asia. When he's not traveling throughout the US (and beyond), he enjoys fly fishing, music, reading and gardening. He and his wife, Pam, live in Richmond, VA and have three grown daughters and nine grandchildren.
